UK

Listed below are the UK censuses that are publicly available, showing the official date when the census was taken:

1841 census - night of 6 June 1841

1851 census - night of 30 March 1851

1861 census - night of 7 April 1861

1871 census - night of 2 April 1871

1881 census - night of 3 April 1881

1891 census - night of 5 April 1891

1901 census - night of 31 March 1901

1911 census - night of 2 April 1911

For the 1841 census only, enumerators were instructed to round down the ages of persons 15 years and over to a multiple of five years

So someone aged 19 should have been recorded as 15, someone aged 51 as 50 and so on
